

JDC Sunday Lunch – Mar 25th
The Green Man, Howe Street
Meet at 12.00 for 12.30

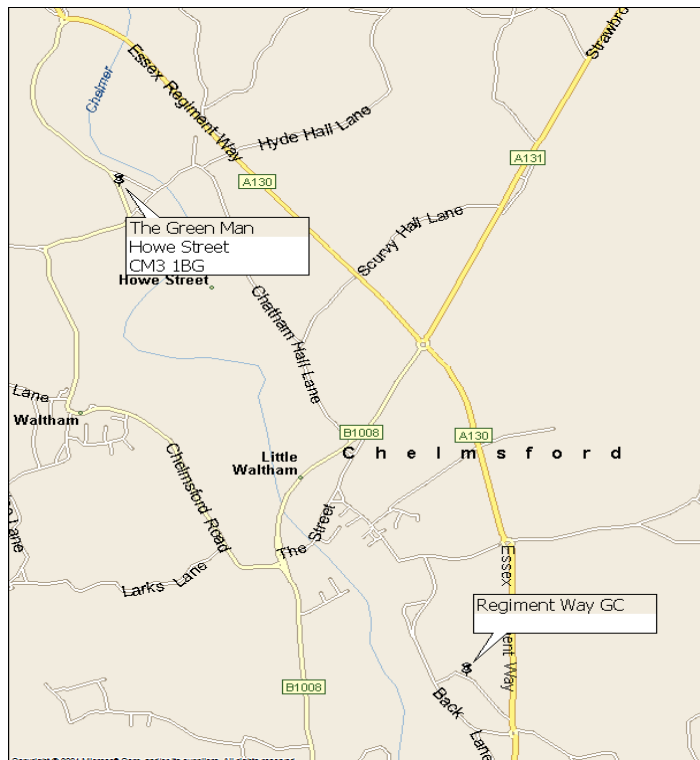

The Green Man
Main Road
Howe Street
Great Waltham
CM3 1BG

Our first new venue of 2012, The Green Man is certainly worth a visit. Dating back to at least 1352 when records show the Byckener family were serving ales and victuals from their house. The Green Man has been well known as the oldest pub in Essex for many years. It's situated on the old main Dunmow to Chelmsford Road - a short detour by vehicle from Essex Regiment Way.

Sunday is a Carvery at £10.50 per head.

The landlady, Kate, has also offered the large three acre site for rally's etc. so it's worth looking at the potential.

Please advise your interest at the next club night.
